FROM : Amembassy GUATEMALA

SUBJECT : Weekly Internal Security Report: March 29 - April 4, 1968

REF :

1. The week was almost devoid of incidents relating to internal security. There were neither any significant insurgent operations nor any important actions by the security forces.
2. The topic of widest interest from an internal security viewpoint is still the changes in top military and police command. Those changes and the impact they may be expected to have on the country are the subject of another airgram. In addition, the President is scheduled to give a nationwide address on the night of April 5 which may clarify things a bit.
